Oregon Ice Cream Recalled for Possible Allergen Contamination

(Juneau, Alaska) Oregon Ice Cream Company LLC is recalling three gallon tubs of Denali Bear Claw ice cream because it may contain peanuts not declared on the product label. People who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to peanuts run the risk of serious or life-threatening allergic reaction if they consume these products.

The Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation has confirmed that some of the recalled ice cream has been distributed in Alaska.

No illnesses related to these products have been reported.

The affected tubs of Denali Bear Claw ice cream have the lot code of 10124 and the item number of 061041 on the label.

The Food and Drug Administration advises consumers who have purchased Denali Bear Claw ice cream to return it to the place of purchase for a refund or they can destroy the product. Product questions may be directed to Oregon Ice Cream at 1-800-282-2202.
